CLUSTER OF ENGLISH SONGS.

NEW SELECTED EDITION OF THE CHOICEST SONGS BY THE BEST KNOWN AND MOST ADMIRER AUTHORS

Price, post-free, in Boards, $2.00; in Cloth, $2.50; Full Gilt, $3.00.

Very little need be said in praise of this collection, since its title will indicate, to all lovers of good music, the nature of its contents. Of the great mass of English songs, a comparatively limited number only have possessed sufficient merit to gain a foothold in America, and of such as have been introduced here, still fewer have possessed sufficient vitality to survive the test of public opinion. The endeavor has been to collect in this volume only such gems as have acquired an unquestioned hold on the affection of the people. How thoroughly this has been done will be best learned by an examination of the contents below. The publishers are confident the collection will long hold an honored place among compilations of this character.

The volume contains 256 pages, full sheet music size, printed in clear type, on good paper, and neatly gotten up in various styles of binding to suit any taste or length of course
