WHO'S WHO AT THE ORPHEUM

CARMEL MYERS is celebrating her return from the East by appearing here in her Pacific Coast vaudeville debut. Carmel is a native daughter and has long enjoyed an enviable place among the stars of the screen. The coming into vogue of the talking and singing pictures have brought new laurels to Carmel's beautiful brow, and the golden soprano voice which has made her such a popular favorite in the talkies, will be revealed in all its glory on the Orpheum stage. While Carmel was in New York, in connection with the opening of one of her pictures on Broadway, she headlined for two record-breaking weeks at the Palace and this current engagement is her only local vaudeville appearance.

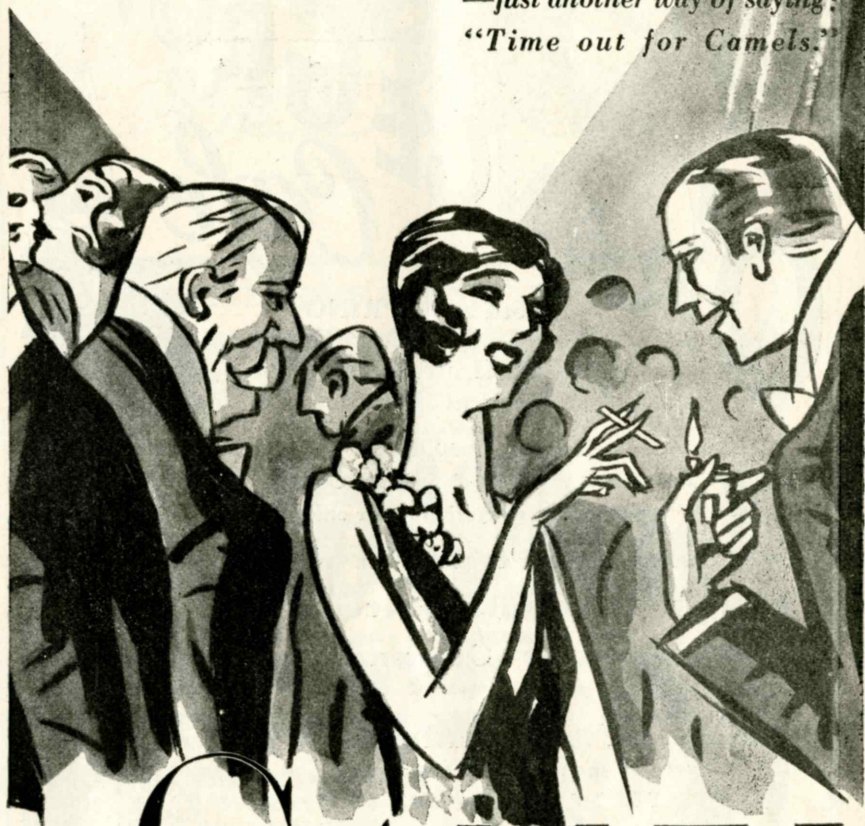

GUS and JOE—better known as VAN & SCHENCK—are with us again. All the nice things we said about them last week still hold good—only more so—since their tremendous popularity has held them over for a second week to share headline honors with Miss Myers.

LARRY RICH is another exemplar of the favorite phrase "local boy makes good," since Larry lives in Glendale, when he is not traveling over the circuit. As a matter of fact, not only does Larry live in Glendale, but also Cherie; since "the pert miss of the boulevards" is Larry's partner in domestic life as well as on the stage. Larry and Cherie are presenting this week their popular two-act entitled "The Prologue," and Cherie also helps Larry in the big orchestral act of LARRY RICH & FRIENDS, one of the most pretentious orchestral presentations on the circuit. By the way, if you want a phonographic treat, get some of Larry's records; they will be a pleasant reminder of a great artist.

BLINDFOLDED

I KNEW I WAS SITTING IN A GITTELSON SEAT.

(with apologies to Ivory Soap)

Carefully making me as uncomfortable as possible with a blindfold and strait-jacket with two pairs of pants, the professors conducting this remarkable test led me from one seat to another. After each sitting they gave me a turkish bath to remove the impression of the previous seat. The first test was in the 58th row — the second in the 29th, the third was across the street, and the last was the one in which I cried "Hallelujah" . . .

a seat from Gittelson Brothers. I made my selection because of the closeness of the seat, every word from the stage was so distinct, I could hear even during intermission although my ears were stuffed with cotton. I could almost touch the actors, and one of them almost touched me . . . for a dollar. Gittelson Seats satisfy, and it is lucky they only charge 50c a ticket for service — never more, and what a difference a few cents make. Be nonchalant and still keep your old gold. And you don't need to walk a mile either for Gittelson Brothers have three convenient offices. Biltmore Hotel, Lankershim Hotel, 6770 Hollywood Blvd.

NOTE—The order of the program is indicated by an Annunciator on each side of the stage; the management reserves the right to change the program without notice.

"The last act on our bill is always interesting and frequently a feature of our show. In justice to this act, the audience is respectfully requested to remain seated until it is finished. It is very disconcerting to have a part of the audience leave while the artists are doing their best to please those who remain."

TO OUR PATRONS

The current week marks the discontinuance of two-a-day vaudeville at the ORPHEUM THEATRE.

This house will be temporarily closed after the evening performance on Friday, for extensive alterations and installation of R. C. A. PHOTOPHONE projectors—latest improved models—which will be the FINEST TALKING-PICTURE EQUIPMENT IN LOS ANGELES.

The ORPHEUM will reopen Christmas Day with the Pacific Coast Premiere of Radio Pictures' Greatest Achievement. Please watch the daily papers for announcements.

This same picture will have its Eastern Premiere on the same day, at the Earl Carroll Theatre in New York, at $2.00 per seat but the ORPHEUM THEATRE will present it to Los Angeles at popular prices, continuous showing.

Following the opening attraction, this theatre will present extended runs of other great Radio Pictures—fitting, epochal studio-mates of "Rio Rita" and "Street Girl"—thus again making the ORPHEUM the Mecca of entertainment-seekers in Los Angeles and vicinity.

We wish to thank you most sincerely for your patronage in the past and pledge you our utmost efforts to bring here the Pacific Coast Premieres of the greatest pictures available.

Genius

ONE cannot enter the gates of Forest Lawn without realizing the tremendous cultural significance of this great Memorial-Park to the communities of Southern California. To this memorial area have been brought many of the world's treasures of art—glorious sculptures born of genius; architecture inspired by Old World churches and other buildings of beauty and renown; objects of decorative art pictured on canvas, carved in wood, wrought in iron and bronze. These jewels of man's highest genius have as their setting a landscape of sweeping greensward, kindly trees, sparkling fountains and joyous flowers.

Here is inspiration, here is faith, here is eternal life made real and visible through the beauty of a divinely created earth. The gates of Forest Lawn Memorial-Park are open every day, and through them pass thousands of people who seek and find alleviation of sorrow, regeneration of faith.

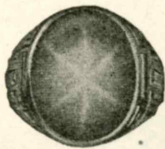

A beautifully illustrated Art Book, "Chimes," may be obtained by sending 25 cents to partially cover its cost.
