The Inimitable Dancing Family

Kitty Doner

With

Sister Rose and Brother Ted Doner

In "A League of Song Steps"

A DANCING FAMILY

Vaudeville has one of the greatest dancing trios on the American stage in Kitty Doner and her sister Rose and Brother Ted, who will be one of the chief features of the bill here the week of October 2nd, offering "A League of Song Steps." Kitty Doner is sweet, petite and pretty. She is a bit of radium, pulsating, throbbing, effervescing, constantly moving mass of energy, vitality, animation and attractiveness. She is the typical American dancer and comes from a dancing family, her father and mother and grandparents being noted dancers. Sister Rose and Brother Ted are following the path stepped by Kitty and the dancing of this remarkable trio has given vaudeville one of its most attractive features.

NOTICE TO PATRONS!

The last act on our bill is always interesting and often is one of the features of our show, and in justice to this act, the audience is requested to remain seated until it is finished. It is very disconcerting to have part of the audience leave while the artists are doing their best to please those remaining seated who are discommoded by having their attention distracted from the stage by people leaving.

JOE COOK

"The One Man Vaudeville Show" Here Next Week
in a New Offering

ONE MAN VAUDEVILLE SHOW

The expression "he is a whole show in himself" seems to have been coined especially for Joe Cook. His range of accomplishments is exceedingly broad and besides he is a master of travesty. These qualities enable him with delightful humor to present in brief a whole variety bill from the opening feature to the exit march. He is a trapeze artist,—and the word artist is used with particular significance,—a magician, a song and dance turn, in fact, Cook gives tabloids of every act usual to a vaudeville program and does every thing as well as most artists do a single thing. Cook is well and popularly known to patrons of B. F. Keith's Theatre and his coming here the week of October 2 is sure to be warmly welcomed.

A VERSATILE ARTIST

Miss Patricola is a scintillating melodist both with the violin and with her voice and she is one of the most popular entertainers on the vaudeville stage today. Philadelphians have enjoyed her catchy songs and violin numbers many times and her engagement at B. F. Keith's Theatre for the week of October 2nd, is one that is sure to meet with the warmest approval. Miss Patricola is attractive, with a stage presence as great and as magnetic as her musical ability. She possesses showmanship and a way of introducing her songs and musical numbers that never fail to win favor. She has some new songs this season and her offering is a real musical delight.
