“Bill’s Partner”

IN VAUDEVILLE

HENNEGAN, CINCINNATI

“BILL'S PARTNER.”

A EPISODE OF WESTERN LIFE
IN ONE ACT.

A tabloid drama, combining natural comedy and pathos. A story of real people and real events, told in intense dramatic style and embracing all the elements of a successful play.

Pronounced by press and public to be one of the most novel play-lettes of present day Vaudeville.

Scenery and Effects.

The mounting of "Bill's Partner" is elaborate and complete. The scene represents a mining shack in the mountains of Nevada in winter, overlooking the distant valley from the snow-capped mountains. A blinding snow storm is shown, gradually changing to moonlight, the sky is filled with twinkling stars, and finally the approach of morning and the sun rising over the mountains.

The scenery and effects are among the most elaborate carried by any Vaudeville act. The entire production painted and designed by The Detroit Scenery Co., Detroit, Mich. Electrical effects by Kleigle Bros., New York City.

“BILL’S PARTNER.”

Is a dramatic feature on any bill, and has proven to be one of the best offerings yet presented of this class. As a playlette that will please any audience, moving them from laughter to tears, and gripping them in an intense climax:—as a scenic production of great beauty; “BILL’S PARTNER” will prove a winner for any manager.

TIME OF ACT:
TWENTY MINUTES—FULL STAGE.
